Avoiding HMRC challenges to pre sale transfers to spouse/civil partner

- Gift without strings
- Gifts of proceeds back to donor not recommended
- Long interval helps
- HMRC argue gift was sale proceeds not asset

Self Invested Pensions Plans – SIPP

Small Self Administered Schemes - SSASs

- SIPP and SSASs – a solution for business assets owned personally?

Company Cars

- Tax/NIC cost prohibitive for many cars
- Efficient Cars (QUALECs)
- 10% BIK (+3% for a diesel)
- More choices available now

Qualec - example

- Say, Golf BlueMotion TDI 1.6 105PS
- List Price £18,925 / Co2: 99 g/km.
- BIK @ 13% of list price = £2,460.
- For a 40% tax payer: annual IT = £984
- For a 20% tax payer: annual IT = £492
- Employer NIC @ 13.8% = £339.
- 100% CT deduction (circa £4k) in year of purchase!

Company cars - changes

- Increasing by 1% for every 5 g/km to a maximum of 35%.

Dividend waivers and differential shares

- Shareholders with different income profiles
- Traditionally: Dividend waivers
- Can go wrong: taxed as remuneration!
- Differential shares – a more elegant solution.
- Not Alphabet shares!
- Enables a specific profit extraction strategy tailored to your needs.

Incentivising employees

- Enterprise Management Incentives
- Company Share Options Plans
- Approved by HMRC
- Costs are deductible for Corporation Tax
- If it costs less to reward employees there is more profit for shareholders!

How do EMI's / CSOPs work?

- Options are granted over shares at market value: No IT/NIC payable: the purchase price is 'fixed'.
- When options vest/become exercisable: employee pays the 'fixed price' for the shares - No IT/NIC charge.
- CGT payable on uplift in price on disposal.

Enterprise Investment Scheme

- Attract investment? Defer CGT?
- Conditions attached but can subscribe for shares and defer ANY gain.
- Persons that are not connected can get IT reducer @ 20% of investment.
- Potentially shares are exempt from CGT!

Profit Extraction

- EBTs and EFURBs
- New legislation – these no longer work!
- What will replace?
- Will it work?
- Not for the risk averse!!!!
